NEW SECTION EDITORS FOR CHELONIANS

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors wishes to thank the dedicated service over many years of the retiring team of co-Section Editors in this group: Will Selman (since 2016), Bruno Ferronato (2018), and Vivian Páez (2018).

After a wide search, we now wish to introduce our new team to handle freshwater turtle manuscripts:

John L. Carr, Professor Emeritus of Biology, University of Louisiana Monroe. He received B.S. and M.S. from Texas A&M University, and PhD at Southern Illinois University. In recent years, he also serves as a Research Associate in the Department of Biology, Universidad del Valle, Colombia. Dr. Carr has authored 80 scientific papers. He will cover North America to northern South America.

John H. Roe, Professor, Department of Biology, University of North Carolina – Pembroke. John received his B.A. from Davidson College, MSc from Purdue University, and PhD at University of Canberra, Australia. Author of 50 publications. Initially, he will cover North America and some international papers.

Carla C. Eisemberg, Lecturer in STEM Pathways, College of Engineering, IT and Environment, Charles Darwin University, Australia. She earned an A.B. at Federal University of Minas Gerais, MSc at the Instituto Nacional de Pesquisas da Amazônia, Brazil, and PhD at University of Canberra, Australia. Dr. Eisemberg is the author on over 30 publications. Her expertise is South America and Australia/Far East.

We continue to search for wider geographic scope (especially in the Old World). If you are interested, please let us know.
